

Today we are going to be retelling the story of Mrs Armitage and thinking about our favourite part of the story.

Can you remember the repeating phrases from the story?

What did Mrs Armitage add to her bike?

Have a go at telling the story to someone in your family. Maybe you could pretend to be Mrs Armitage and act out the story.

How would you feel when your hands got all greasy?

How would you feel when you saw Breakspear panting?

What is your favourite part of the story?
Is there a part that made you laugh?

----- is my favourite part of the story because -----.
