I can investigate what happens when light meets an object

Method: We are going to shine a torch onto an object and observe whether the light passes through it.

The variables I will keep the same to ensure it is a fair test are:_____

_____

_____

Material	All light passes through Transparent	Some light passes through Translucent	No light passes through Opaque