

Wednesday 29th April – English: I can use adjectives to describe a noun.

An adjective is a describing word. We can use them to describe a noun (person, place or thing). For example: The little girl was picking the wild flowers.

Can you read these sentences and underline the adjective?

1. The little boy was playing on his blue scooter.
2. There was a big swing in the park.
3. The bossy teacher was reading the funny book.

Now can you add in an adjective to these sentences? There are some adjectives at the bottom to help you.

1. The _____ bird was sitting in the _____ tree.
2. On the _____ wall, there was a _____ cat.
3. The _____ boy went to the _____ shop.
4. The girl had _____ hair and _____ eyes.

little	black	brick	oak
spotty	toy	brown	blue

Can you think of some adjectives to describe this picture?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Challenge: can you write some sentences on another piece of paper, in your yellow book or on the back of this sheet using the adjectives you have thought of?