Watch the film and listen to Boris' story about Ollie and Bethan.

(There is a link to the film on the webpage above.)

- How did Ollie show love for his sister?
- How do you think Ollie's actions made his sister feel?
- How do you think it made Ollie feel?

The Unselfie Challenge:

Boris mentioned an Unselfie Challenge in the video. This is something we have done at school and it would be great for you to try at home as well. Think about ways you can be unselfie at home with your families.

Talk about your time at home:

- How have you helped someone else this week?
- How did it make the other person feel?
- How did it make you feel?

Our Family Challenge: How can we be more "Unselfie"?

Work together to make a list of ideas for being "unselfie" at home?

How can you show love to people in your family?

What acts of kindness could you try, to show that you are thinking of people other than yourself?

Write your ideas in Boris' tummy and display your poster somewhere that you can all see it each day.

Boris says,
"Showing our families kindness
and love is a great way to be unselfie."

Let Us Pray

Dear Lord

Thank you for our families.

Please help us to think about each other so that we can be unselfie while we have this extra time together.

Help us to remember to contact family and friends who we aren't able to visit to show them that we care.

Amen.

Hope for a better tomorrow

Joining together, singing as one.

Giving what we can give, hope has never gone.

Through times of sorrow, in times of pain;

Gather together, sing once again.

Share all the world now, this is our song.

Hope for a better tomorrow, singing all as one.

Care for the world now, hear us in our song.

Hope for a better tomorrow, singing all as one.

Memories will linger, time will help to heal.
Troubles across the world, sadness we all feel.
Sing with your heart now, sing with your soul.
Show with your voice of hope you are here for all.

Share all the world now, this is our song.
Hope for a better tomorrow, singing all as one.
Care for the world now, hear us in our song.
Hope for a better tomorrow, singing all as one.

Peace be with you
And also with you
