

I can describe, compare and measure capacity and volume.

Cut out the individual containers for each group. Put the containers in order from smallest to largest capacity and stick them down on this sheet.

For example:

When you are finished ordering the containers by capacity, you could complete the activity provided by White Rose Maths as a challenge. You can find this linked on our website post.

