

Will you be a good grammar detective?

1) Underline the nouns in these sentences

The cat chased the mice.

I could see the old house with the broken windows.

The breeze gently touched my face.

2) Underline the verbs in these sentences

I heard a strange noise.

Frank played outside on the playground.

I had spaghetti bolognaise for my tea.

I ran, skipped and jumped all of the way home.

3) Underline the adjectives in these sentences

The beautiful bird flew into the bright, blue sky.

I put on my running shoes.

I listened to the pop music on my radio.

I put on my jogging trousers and my black hat.

The beach is large and interesting.

1) Underline the nouns in these sentences

The cat chased the mice.

I could see the old house with the broken windows.

The breeze gently touched my face.

2) Underline the verbs in these sentences

I heard a strange noise.

Frank played outside on the playground.

I had spaghetti bolognaise for my tea.

I ran, skipped and jumped all of the way home.

3) Underline the adjectives in these sentences

The beautiful bird flew into the bright, blue sky.

I put on my running shoes.

I listened to the pop music on my radio.

I put on my jogging trousers and my black hat.

The beach is large and interesting.

Rewrite these sentences using an apostrophe to show possession.

1. The coat belongs to Kate.

It is Kate's coat.

2. The piano belongs to the school.

3. The ball belongs to the team.

4. The toy belongs to my cat.

Tick the correct word to complete the sentence.

The _____ boots were muddy.

boys'

boy's

The _____ glasses were broken.

girls'

girl's

Rewrite these sentences using an apostrophe to show possession.

1. The coat belongs to Kate.

It is Kate's coat.

2. The piano belongs to the school.

It is the school's piano.

3. The ball belongs to the team.

It is the team's ball.

4. The toy belongs to my cat.

It is the cat's toy.

Tick the correct word to complete the sentence.

The _____ boots were muddy.

boys'

boy's

The _____ glasses were broken.

girls'

girl's