

Often in stories a pirate's companion is a parrot.

Look at the pictures below to see if you can make your own paper parrot.

You could draw around tins or jars from the kitchen cupboards to make big and small circles.

If you don't have brightly coloured paper at home you could always colour the circles in.

