

Geography

Earlier in the week, we looked at the different continents of the world. Here is a reminder.

Which continent is this?

As you can see, this continent is made up of lots of different countries and we are going to be learning a bit more about one of these countries.

This is Ghana in the continent of Africa.
Santrokofi is a traditional town in the south of the country where the Raising Hope Foundation supports the community.

Look at the pictures showing aspects of life in Santrokofi and the surrounding area.

Try to write a list poem to describe some of the things you can see in the photographs.
Here are some ideas to get you started.

Kente cloth is a type of silk and cotton fabric made of interwoven cloth strips and is made in South Ghana.

Colour the border in a kente cloth design.
