

The Boy Who Swam With Piranhas & The Best Is Yet To Come

English: The Boy Who Swam with Piranhas

RE: The Best is Yet to Come

Art: Andy Warhol

A piranha is a freshwater fish with very sharp teeth.

Author:

David Almond

Illustrator:

Oliver Jeffers

Key Vocabulary to learn abolish – to put an end to demolish – to destroy on purpose investigator – a person who enquires into a problem pilchard – a small marine fish terraced houses – a row of houses trawler – a boat used in fishing with a trawl

Ideas for Home Learning

Visit the theatre; visit a funfair; visit the library to read more books by David Almond; take part in the #live lent challenge; design your own packaging for your favourite food

Our Key Learning this term will focus on putting on our Easter Production

Here are some key theatre words to learn.

Act – a major section of a play

Scene – section of an act

Prologue – introductory section of a play

Cast – all actors in a play

Back Stage crew – people who keep the show running smoothly

Stage right – the right side of the stage for an actor facing the audience

Stage left – the left side of the stage for an actor facing the audience

Name: Andy Warhol

Born: 6th August 1928

Died: 22nd February 1987

Famous for: Being an American artist who was a leading figure in the pop art movement.

Artwork: Warhol used a technique called screen printing to create lots of prints that look the same.

