

Vocabulary Top Ten:

changed	different from before compare	consider similarities and differences everyday	something that is used regularly identify	to recognise something material	a substance or matter from which an object can be made particular	something specific property	how a material can be described suitability	the level of which something is right for a purpose unsuitable	not right for the purpose uses	how a material can be used

Uses of Everyday Materials

Learners will:

- identify and compare the suitability of a variety of everyday materials, including wood, metal, plastic, glass, brick, rock, paper and cardboard for particular uses
- find out how the shapes of solid objects made from some materials can be changed by squashing, bending, twisting and stretching

Key Skills

- asking simple questions
- observing closely
- performing simple tests
- identifying and classifying
- gathering and recording data

Changing Materials

Properties of Materials

EVERYDAY MATERIALS

